FRIGID WAVE ON WAY FROM NORTH LANDS

Freezing Weather May be Experienced in Midwest Points

Chicago, October 12—(AP)—The good old summer time, a calendar truant dallying over into mid-October, perked an apprehensive ear today to cold whispers from the Alaskan wastes.

After treating Chicago to the hottest October 11 in 56 years—the mercury reached 87.2 during the day—summer temperatures today were confronted with warnings of fur and loquat weather by nightfall. A cold wave is moving upon the midwest from Alaska, the government weather office said, threatening to drive temperatures as low as the freezing point by tomorrow.

The Chicago beaches bloomed with bathers under yesterday's summer sun, even as the October hot spell was being broken in Nebraska and parts of the northwest by angry rain storms and precipitate drops in temperature.

Hot weather has prevailed during the past few days over territory as far west as Nebraska and east to Pennsylvania. Cleveland, O., had its hottest October 11 with a temperature of 86 degrees, only six degrees under the high mark for the entire year, while it was 90 degrees at Sandusky, O.

Much Snow in West
Denver, Oct. 12—(AP)—A wintry storm which swept into the Rocky Mountain region from Canadian prairies moved eastward, today bringing promise of lower temperatures and rain or snow throughout the Missouri Valley, where balmy Indian summer weather with an occasional hot summer day, has prevailed for weeks.

Snow, which fell in nearly every western state and which reached a depth of 8 inches in places yesterday, had turned to rain as the storm swept down across the high plains of Western Kansas and Nebraska last night. A six-week drought, which had affected growth of winter wheat on the Kansas plateaus, was broken by the rain. Freezing temperature with snow was in prospect today.

Below Freezing
The snow and cold first hit Montana Wednesday, and spread out fan-shaped throughout the Rocky Mountain region. The mercury fell to 28 degrees at Helena yesterday, and snow fell all day at Great Falls, near the Canadian border. Snow was general in Wyoming and the higher Colorado Rockies.

A mercury drop was recorded in the populated sections of Colorado, and rain which fell in Denver and other towns last night was expected to turn to snow today and spread into northern New Mexico.

Eight inches of snow fell in Logan, Utah, and wire communication was impaired. Apple orchards in the state, where the harvest had begun, were damaged, but the moisture was beneficial to the beet crop.

of Polo is Called (Telephone Special Service)

Polo, Ill., Oct. 12—Mrs. Robert L. Bracken, wife of Attorney R. L. Bracken of the law firm of Dixon, Devine, Bracken & Dixon, whose illness during the past summer had been the source of much concern on the part of her many friends, died at the Deaconess hospital in Freeport at 4 o'clock Thursday afternoon, following an operation on Tuesday.

Funeral services will be held at the Bracken home in Polo at 2 o'clock Saturday afternoon. Rev. G. Kenneth Shafer, pastor of the Presbyterian church officiating, and with burial in Fairmount.

Lillis Lawrent, daughter of John and Julia Lawrent, was born in Polo, Sept. 24, 1885, and her entire life was spent in this community, where her beautiful personality surrounded her with a large friendship, which in its entirety deeply mourns her passing. She graduated from the Polo high school in 1903 and Sept. 1, 1909 she was married to Robert L. Bracken, who, with two daughters—Louise and Arlene—are left to mourn her. Two daughters died in infancy, her father passed away in January, 1912, and her mother in May, this year.

ROCKFORD GIRL KIDNAPED LAST NIGHT IN AUTO

Police Seek Rejected Suitor of Anna Dom- ino, Aged 19

BULLETIN
Janesville, Wis., Oct. 12—(AP)—Anna Domino, 19-year-old girl, who was kidnaped at Rockford, Ill., last night, was found here this morning. Police said that she had been brought here by an Italian and held in a grocery store over night.

The girl, almost hysterical, told police that she was on her way home at about 7:30 last night when a man sprang from behind a tree, clamped a hand over her mouth and threw her into an automobile.

She was taken to a house in Rockford, but her captor evidently feared that her screams might spread an alarm, so he, with the aid of two other Italian men and a woman, again placed her in the car and took her to Janesville, arriving here about midnight, she told police.

Accused Schipio
Miss Domino declared that her abductor was Peter Schipio of Rockford, who has been persistently wooing her for sometime despite repeated rejections on her part.

Arriving in Janesville, she said, he and his companions took her to the home of Tom Mocero, where she was kept until about 6 o'clock this morning. Then they took her to Mocero's grocery store.

Meanwhile relatives in Rockford feared that the girl might have been taken to Janesville and called the police here. At about the same time a milkman reported that he heard a girl's screams in the grocery store. Police at once left for the scene and found Miss Domino.

The girl had lost a tooth in her struggles with the kidnapers and had been severely choked, and while she was in an almost hysterical condition declared that she had not been otherwise molested. She was taken home by her parents.

PUBLIC TO GET NO REFUND OF GAS TAXATION

Springfield Judge's Decision Excludes Those Who Paid

Springfield, Ill., Oct. 12—(AP)—A decision which, in effect, bars the motoring public from a legal interest in the money collected by the state under the unconstitutional gasoline tax was handed down in circuit court today by Judge Charles Briggie.

The decision was in one of the test cases under which gasoline companies are seeking a refund of the money they paid to the state.

The gasoline firms had claimed that since they paid the money to the state the money should be returned to them. The state, in a cross bill, contended that the oil companies did not, in reality, pay the tax out of their own pockets, but merely collected from the motorist and passed it on to the state.

To this plea, the gas companies set up a demurrer, which Judge Briggie sustained today.

This ruling, it was pointed out, will shorten litigation in the suits considerably, as the court would have to go through almost endless ramifications in order to determine what persons originally paid the tax.

The decision is said to be based on similar cases decided in the Federal Supreme Court, most of which were railroad suits, in which the court held that such litigation is limited to the firms and the government.

The next step in the gas tax litigation probably will be a conference of attorneys to decide upon test cases covering all the various types of refund claims before the court. It is expected that all the cases will ultimately reach the State Supreme Court and possibly the U. S. Supreme Court.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Beard and Mr. and Mrs. William Covert will motor to Chicago Saturday morning and attend the Notre Dame-Navy game.

THIRTY ACRES OF CORN DESTROYED BY FIRE STARTED BY CARELESSLY DISCHARGED CIGARETTE: LOSS BIG

A cigarette butt and a dry cornfield made a combination that caused considerable loss and a lot of excitement south of Van Petten Wednesday, requiring the efforts of about 40 men to fight the resultant fire and prevent a more serious conflagration.

Shortly before noon the large cornfield, comprising nearly 80 acres on James M. Foley's farm three miles south of Van Petten was discovered to be on fire. The fire is said to have been started by the stub of a cigarette being thrown near the edge of the field. Recent warm dry weather had made the corn stalks almost like tinder and the fire spread rapidly, fanned by a high wind.

Help was summoned and in a short time about 40 men were on the scene. Two tractors were started, drawing several plows, and a wide space was plowed through the field, using the method employed in pioneer days to stop prairie fires, as no effectual progress could be made in checking the spread of the fire with water or by trying to beat out the flames. The use of plows resulted in saving all but about thirty acres of the corn.

FIRST PLEA FOR CASH AT Y. M. C. A. IN THREE YEARS

Campaign for Fine Com- munity Enterprise On Next Week

With the slogan "It is Better to Build Boys Than to Mend Men," and pointing to a record of over thirty years of unselfish service for Dixon men and boys, which service during the past year or so has been extended to include a large number of interested young women, the Dixon Young Men's Christian Association, through teams of workers, will on next Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday make its first appeal in three years to the people of Dixon and vicinity for financial support.

During those three years the association officers, by carefully watching every expense, have managed to keep the work going without solicitation of funds from the general public, but now, with some indebtedness incurred, and with the treasury depleted, the directors of the association are making an appeal for $17,500. This amount, it is stated, is necessary to wipe out the indebtedness and to provide the expenses for the coming year, the budget for which is:

A Community Enterprise
The Young Men's Christian Association is serving the community in a most helpful and unselfish manner, the building at Galena and Third being a veritable beehive, teeming with life. Here men and boys come for recreation and exercise, for social contact with their fellows, for counsel and help.

The Association not only helps to build better men and boys but the Women's department, taking over the building on Mondays, is of untold benefit to a large number of women and girls. The Girls' Hi-Y Club and the Boys' Hi-Y Club are continually striving to raise the standards and ideals of the young life of the city. The younger boys clubs, known as the Friendly Indians and the Pioneers are helpful influences in the years when minds are plastic and character can best be molded. The Y. M. C. A. Boy's Band has been the means of interesting a large number of boys in good music and has served the community most acceptably on numerous occasions.

The physical department of the association deserves special mention. Gymnasium classes are serving men and boys of all ages, corrective exercises given when needed, physical examinations are a regular feature, swimming and life saving instruction form a regular part of the program while bowling leagues, baseball, basketball and volleyball leagues provide competitive games of the right sort.

The camp periods every summer provide experiences of an unusual nature. A well conducted camp is much appreciated by parents and the association provides this feature most satisfactorily. The boys' camp at the close of the school year is followed by the girls' camp.

FORCED TO SAIL WAY SOUTH TO AVOID STORMS AND THEN RAN INTO HIGH HEAD WINDS

Not Expected to Land at Lakehurst Until Monday Morning

Steamship Euclid (West of Madeira), Oct. 12—(By wireless to The Associated Press.)—The Graf Zeppelin passed over this steamship at 3:30 p. m. (10:30 a. m. Eastern Standard time) in latitude 32.38 north and longitude 17.30 west.

She was steering west-northwest and making good speed as she went by. Weather fine. Wind light from the west-southwest. Visibility good.

The above dispatch from the Euclid placed the Graf Zeppelin about sixty miles west of the Island of Madeira and apparently bearing a little north of a course which would carry her directly toward Bermuda.

BULLETIN.
Berlin, Oct. 12—(AP)—(6:30 P. M.)—Latest news from Horta indicates that Dr. Hugo Eckener, instead of going directly to Bermuda, is heading sharply for the Azores which he expects to reach early this evening.

Aeronautic circles, which had received direct advice from Dr. Eckener at noon that he would head for Bermuda, concluded that this reported change of plans was prompted by the hope that the commander of the giant air liner might be able to reach American weather stations from the Azores and that he could then determine what course he would follow from that point.

The last definite report of the position of the airship was received from the steamship Euclid west of the Island of Madeira. This said that the dirigible was flying west-northwest on a course that would carry her midway between a direct line to the Azores and to Bermuda.

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
The Graf Zeppelin, fighting headwinds and dodging stronger ones to the north, today was far south of her scheduled course bound for the United States by way of Bermuda.

So strong were the headwinds encountered in yesterday's flight over southern Europe that it was not thought the dirigible could reach Lakehurst, N. J., until 6:00 a. m. Monday after 100 hours in the air.

Detours already have taken the Zeppelin about 1,000 miles out of its way and far to the south of the usual southern route by way of the Azores.

The Zeppelin, at 6:17 a. m. Eastern standard time, was reported by the steamship Gloucester Castle at a point 150 miles northeast of the Island of Madeira, off the northwest coast of Africa.

A course from here would carry her south of the Azores and in a long arc passing Bermuda.

The airship was reported sighted by three ships after passing Gibraltar early this morning: the British tanker Gymeric off the coast of Spanish Morocco.

Five military planes from Mitchell Field, Long Island, and many commercial ships bearing photographers are to act as an escort for the dirigible, along with the two navy blimps from Lakehurst, he said.

The huge trans-Atlantic liner was over the Atlantic today well on her way to the United States after having fought headwinds which delayed her passage along the Mediterranean coast of Spain.

Turning her blunt silver nose to the southwest after passing Gibraltar at 5 a. m. Greenwich time (midnight, Eastern Standard time) the airship apparently headed for the Madeira Islands with a water jump of some 3700 miles ahead of her before the American Coast was reached.

Two hours after the airship passed Gibraltar the captain of the British tanker Gymeric, who was then about 50 miles out in the Atlantic off the coast of Spanish Morocco, sighted the airship well to the south. Graf Zeppelin was going in a westerly direction which would take her over the Madeira Islands. Favorable weather lay ahead of the dirigible (Continued on page 2)

MURDERED MAN ONCE OCCUPIED OREGON ISLAND

Ogle Co. Authorities Re- call an Encounter with Shepler

News dispatches from Burlington, Iowa, uncovering the facts concerning a brutal murder on an island in the Mississippi river last year of Oliver Shepler at the hands of Jake Zippe and Jonathan Hagan, who are under arrest at Tucson, Ariz., recalls to the minds of former Ogle county authorities the operations of two bandits in northern Illinois about 13 years ago. Shepler, the murdered man, is believed to have been one of the two bandits, who for many months occupied a log cabin on a small island in Rock River between Grand Detour and Oregon. Charles Myers, state game warden, and William Delaney, former County Treasurer, of Ogle county, vividly recall one incident by which they will never forget either of the two men.

"Billy" Delaney, well known in Dixon and vicinity, former county treasurer of Ogle county, this morning told of the presence of the pair of bandits in Ogle county, one of whom he feels certain is the man who was murdered on Huron island in the Mississippi river last year. In commenting upon the incident, Mr. Delaney told a Telegraph reporter the following incident:

Recalls Incident
"In 1915 when William Mackey was sheriff of Ogle county, I was then serving as county treasurer and Charles Myers was a Deputy Sheriff. One afternoon Charles asked me to accompany him on a trip to an island near the Lowden farm where Shepler and another fellow by the name of Joe Boyer lived in an old log cabin. We knew both of the fellows and they were suspected of a number of things. 'Shep' as Shepler was commonly known, had several other names, and both he and Boyer had served sentences in the penitentiary. Boyer died some years ago of tuberculosis after being turned out of the penitentiary because of ill health."

"We went to the island and found both men, Boyer was living in a small tent. Shepler and Boyer were there and Myers informed Shep that he had a warrant for him. We talked for awhile and finally Shep said that he would step into the cabin and change some clothes and would then be ready to go with us. When he came out a few minutes later, he had a big gun in one hand and told us that neither him or Boyer would leave the island alive. I arrested him later in Rockford and he served a term in the penitentiary at Joliet. I heard of him later on an island in the Mississippi below Fulton and he must be the man who was murdered on the island near Burlington. He would have been about 65 years old by this time and had been implicated in a number of jobs."

Girls Reveal Slaying
Shepler's body was found by three sons of August Zippe, brother of Jake Zippe, who is to be returned to Burlington with Jonathan Hagan on murder charges Zippe and Shepler were reputed, according to Burlington authorities, to have been partners in a bootlegging enterprise. Shepler, twice convicted of shooting a policeman in Peoria, was wanted by Illinois authorities for violation of parole.

Two small girls recently disclosed to relative, the violent death of Shepler at the hands of Zippe and Hagan. Both of the girls were daughters of Zippe, and the stories which they confided to an aged aunt at Keithsburg, Ill., reached Sheriff Murray at Burlington, who started the investigation which resulted in the apprehension of the pair at Tucson, Ariz., both of whom are to be returned to Iowa to be tried for Shepler's murder.

SEEK TO SECURE FREEDOM OF TWO NEGROES SENTENCED FOR LIFE FOR KILLING IN LEE COUNTY IN 1918

An attempt to secure the parole of R. E. Johnson and Al Lucas, Negroes, now serving sentence in the Joliet state penitentiary for the murder of William Cole in the railroad yards at Nelson in December, 1918, is reported to have been instituted by four Dixon attorneys, who were to have appeared before the parole board in Springfield this week. The hearing, however, is said to have been postponed.

Lucas and Johnson were tried in the Lee county circuit court at the April term in 1919 and convicted by a jury for the slaying of Cole. Johnson was sentenced to hang and Lucas was to serve a life sentence. Through the activity of local attorneys, Johnson's sentence was commuted by Governor Frank O. Lowden to life imprisonment after work-had been started on the preliminary construction of the gallows at the county jail.

"Curley" Wilson, another Negro who was implicated in the shooting, made his escape. It is reported that the attorneys who are active in the attempt to secure the parole of Lucas and Johnson, contend that Wilson fired the fatal shot. All of the Negroes were members of a gang of laborers who were employed in the NorthWestern yards in Nelson. It is said that several Nelson residents have made affidavit to the character of Lucas, which will be presented to the parole board at the time of the hearing. Judge Edwards, who was State's Attorney at that time and prosecuted the two Negroes, has since refused to recommend the commutation of sentence of either of the pair.

Terse Items of News Gathered in Dixon During Day

MEETING POSTPONED.

Owing to Walgreen Day tomorrow the meeting of the Chamber of Commerce boards has been postponed until Friday night, Oct. 19th.

ASK FLAG DISPLAY.
It is the wish of the Chamber of Commerce that all merchants display their flags Saturday in honor of Walgreen Day. The display of the flags will add materially to the success of the big celebration.

While working on a ladder at his home Wednesday noon, E. H. Rickard slipped from the second rung and fell in such a manner as to break his left leg just above the ankle.

HAD AUTO ACCIDENT.
Al Weigle and C. M. Huguet of this city met with a slight auto accident yesterday afternoon about 3:30 o'clock three miles east of Sterling, in which the former's car was considerably damaged, but from which both venerable gentlemen escaped with a shaking up. The damaged car was hauled to a local garage for repairs.

HAND BADLY HURT.
Charles Russell was the victim of a very painful accident while operating a corn binder on his farm in Palmyra township a few days ago. The binder became clogged and in removing the stalks, the team started. Mr. Russell's left hand was caught in the mechanism and was badly lacerated. He was taken to the hospital where the member was dressed.

ROB FILING STATION.
The Murray filling station east of Dixon on the River road was entered some time early yesterday morning and ransacked. The stock of cigars, cigarettes and inner tubes was considerably depleted and a number of cans of lubricating oil were taken.

An attempt was also made to enter the Schoenholz barbecue stand near the Grand Detour bridge, but the thieves left hurriedly when a police dog was aroused and created a disturbance. This was the second attempt in ten days in which an effort was made to enter the Schoenholz stand and in both instances the police dog frightened away the would be thieves.

STYLE SHOW PLEASSED
The Fall Fashion Revue sponsored by the Retail Division of the Dixon Chamber of Commerce was repeated at the Dixon theater last evening to a capacity audience and was as markedly successful as on the previous evening. The lovely models in their appropriate and gorgeous apparel plainly evidenced the fact that Dixon merchants are up-to-date and keep a wonderful stock. The furniture and accessory stocks in the scenes was also praiseworthy.

"Big Train" to be Senators' Manager
Washington, October 12—(AP)—The way apparently was cleared today for the triumphal return to Washington of Walter Johnson not as a pitcher, but as manager of the team for which he toiled for twenty years.

TOMORROW IS AVIATION DAY IN THIS CITY

Walgreen Aircade Will Spend Several Hours at Dixon Airport

Tomorrow will be one of the biggest days in the history of Dixon if the weather man does not interfere and prevent Charles A. Walgreen's aircade of four big planes flying to the local airport from Chicago for the dedication of the Dixon airport marker—a donation of Mr. Walgreen, head of one of the greatest chains of drug stores in the world, and a former Dixon man. If the weather is inauspicious tomorrow the festivities will be held Sunday.

The four planes which will come to Dixon in the aircade, bringing Mr. Walgreen and his party of twenty or more, will be:

A. S. "Wet and Dry," a dual-motored Sikorsky sesul plane, amphibian, able to alight on land or water.

Gray Goose A. S. "Chicago" a triple-motored Ford all-metal monoplane.

"The Cedar Rapids," a Stinson-Detroiter commercial monoplane, powered with a Wright whirlwind motor. This plane, owned by the Quaker Oats Co., will be piloted by Dan Hunter.

The A. M. Shaw Co. commercial monoplane from Chicago.

Program for Day
The aircade will leave the Municipal Air field in Chicago at 9 a. m., going from there to the Chicago Municipal Air Port for a short stop. The planes will leave the airport at 10 a. m. and are scheduled to land at the Dixon airport on the Joseph Crawford farm east of the city on the Lincoln Highway at 11 a. m.

From 11:30 to 12:30 Mr. Walgreen and his party will be guests of honor at a banquet to be served at the Elks club under the auspices of the Dixon Chamber of Commerce, for which a great many reservations have been made, and at which local business and professional men will express their appreciation of Mr. Walgreen's efforts to put Dixon on the air map by purchasing and presenting the huge Celotex illuminated sign for the field. The sign has been installed flush with the ground, so that it will not interfere with the landing of any plane, and the letters of which can be seen from a great distance.

Demonstration
Following the luncheon, from 12:30 to 2:30 p. m., the Sikorsky amphibian plane "Wet and Dry" will give a series of demonstrations of water landings and take-offs in Rock River just above Assembly Park beach, and no doubt the river bank there will be crowded to capacity, for everyone is invited to witness this exhibition, which will be of unusual interest.

After the river demonstration the "Wet and Dry" will be flown to the field, where it will join the other three ships in the aircade, and where at 3 o'clock the marker will be dedicated, the ceremonies to be in charge of William Johnson, vice president of the Celotex Company, manufacturers of the marker.

The visitors will embark in their planes at 4 o'clock for the return trip to Chicago, where they are scheduled to arrive at 5 p. m.

Police on Duty
Sergeant Kemper of the State Police will detail three special officers to take care of the crowds at the Crawford air field Saturday morning. The Boy Scouts of this area will also be on hand for the same purpose and Sheriff Miller will detail a number of special officers to aid the others detailed for the purpose of preserving order and protection. Sectionalism Dead

Gov. Smith Stated
By D. HAROLD OLIVER
(Associated Press Staff Writer)
Governor Smith's Train En Route to Nashville, Tenn., Oct. 12—(AP)—Cheered by the enthusiasm of thousands of Virginians and North Carolinians who greeted him with noisy demonstrations as his train cut through those normally Democratic strongholds yesterday and last night, Governor Smith came into the border state of Tennessee today for another round of receptions and flying rear-platform campaigning. Before heading for Louisville, Ky., where tomorrow night he will deliver the first formal address of his second campaign tour, the Democratic presidential nominee faced a big reception in Chattanooga, before noon and another late today in Nashville. Between these two cities, the Governor's special train was routed into Northern Alabama for a brief stop or two. Touched by the warmth of his receptions yesterday in Virginia and North Carolina, the nominee heeded demands for an informal speech in both Richmond and Raleigh, the two state capitals, and used "Dixie" and "The Sidewalks of New York," which bands had played for him en route, as an illustration that sectionalism no longer existed in the United States.

New York's Express

Strike is Settled
New York, Oct. 12—(AP)—Striking employees of the American Railway Express company were back at their jobs today and the embargo which the company had placed on all incoming and outgoing express has been lifted. The company estimated service would be back to normal in 24 hours. Decision to end the strike was taken by the workers at a mass meeting addressed by George M. Harrison, Grand President of the International Brotherhood of Railway and Steamship Clerks, who had hurried here from Cincinnati when the announced strike was called Monday night.

Toombs Adviser in Company Surrenders

St. Louis, Oct. 12—(AP)—Dr. E. F. Morgenstern, former personnel director of the International Life Insurance Company and adviser of Roy C. Toombs, former president of the defunct concern who has not accounted for $3,500,000 of the firm's assets, surrendered here today and furnished $15,000 bond under a joint indictment against him and Toombs. The indictment, it was revealed at the time, charged Dr. Morgenstern and Toombs with grand larceny, specifying that on Dec. 6, 1927 they appropriated $338,000 worth of "various bonds of various communities and places, the property of the International Life Insurance Company." The Rumanian physician, handwriting expert and writer on criminology appeared with an attorney and went immediately to the office of Circuit Attorney Sidener.

Doctor Slugged by Thugs in his Office

Uniontown, Pa., Oct. 12—(AP)—Slugged by two men who appeared at his office and asked him to make an emergency sick call, Dr. H. G. Ralston was in a hospital today. The physician was weak from loss of blood, and it had not been determined if he suffered a skull fracture. Dr. Ralston, 35, was approached by two men early this morning. They asked that he visit a woman who was seriously ill. As the doctor turned to a desk to take the address of the woman, both men attacked with blackjacks, rendering him unconscious. When he recovered, he summoned an associate, the latter rushed him to the hospital.

Predicts Hoover will Win in Missouri Poll

Chicago, Oct. 12—(AP)—Victory for Herbert Hoover in Missouri, the mountain and the coast states, was predicted today by two visitors at western headquarters of the Republican National Committee. George Mann, Kansas City capitalist, told James W. Good, Mr. Hoover's western manager, that Missouri would give the Republican presidential nominee a majority of 10,000 to 150,000.

"There seems to be some doubt in the minds of many about St. Louis," he said, "but Kansas City and the rest of the state will insure him a big lead."
A victory for Mr. Hoover in the Pacific Coast states, and the Mountain states of Montana, Idaho, Utah and Nevada was predicted by Ralph E. Williams of Portland, Ore., who said the west regards Mr. Hoover as its own candidate.

Seek Extradition of Rockless Driver

Extradition proceedings may be instituted by State's Attorney Mark C. Keller within the next few days in an effort to bring back to Lee county, Rudolph Van Steffenell of Cincinnati, Ohio, it was rumored at the court house this morning. Von Steffenell was indicted by the September grand jury on a charge of reckless driving and failing to stop at the scene of an accident. Following the indictment, Sheriff Ward Miller forwarded the bench warrant to the sheriff at Cincinnati, asking that the defendant be arrested and held. The necessary papers to bring him to Illinois from Ohio had been made out and were held by the sheriff awaiting word from Cincinnati authorities.

The sheriff received a letter from the sheriff's office at Cincinnati yesterday afternoon stating that Von Steffenell had been arrested and released through a habeas corpus procedure. No notice of his arrest or of the hearing were received by the Lee county authorities until after he had been released.

Van Steffenell is charged with running into an automobile owned and driven by C. J. Engel, 516 Edgewater avenue, Chicago, at the intersection of First street and Galena avenue on March 1 of this year. Eye witnesses to the accident claim that after crashing into the Chicago car, Von Steffenell backed his car up, releasing the bumpers which had been locked and drove to the curb as if to stop and ascertain the amount of damage to the Chicago car. Instead he is said to have driven rapidly down the Galena avenue hill but witnesses succeeded in securing the numbers on his license plates.

FORCED TO SAIL WAY SOUTH

with a light wind from the north.
Long Unreported.
After the airship passed over Tarragona, Spain, at 3:15 p. m. Eastern standard time, yesterday and continued along the Mediterranean coast three hours and 25 minutes went by until she was heard from again. Then advices came that she had passed Castellon de la Plana, 110 miles from Tarragona, and 400 miles from Gibraltar, at 6:40 p. m.

Indications were that the ship was bucking strong headwinds in making for the Atlantic at Gibraltar.

Expectations at the ship's destination, the United States Naval Air Station at Lakehurst, N. J., are that she will arrive Sunday noon.

Four years ago today another air giant, the Los Angeles, left Friedrichshafen, Germany, and was off the southeast coast of Nova Scotia at midnight on October 14, 1924, but as a more southerly route was mapped out for the Graf Zeppelin, it was thought that her first landfall might be either the Massachusetts islands of Nantucket or Martha's Vineyard, or the Long Island shore sometime Sunday.

—unless they were too ailsick to eat. The menu was coffee, tea, bread, butter and eggs or sausage.

The twenty persons lucky enough to obtain passage on the airship, viewed from the air the lights of cities on the Spanish Mediterranean course as the airship passed over there during the early hours of the night at a speed of about 50 miles an hour. They slept in the ten cabins which line the gangway of the ship, five on each side. Each cabin was equipped with two berths, the upper one being a hammock.
Aboard the largest dirigible are 60 persons in all, the greatest number ever to cross the Atlantic by air.

LAKEHURST PLANS
Lakehurst, N. J., Oct. 12—(AP)—Officers and enlisted men of the Naval Air Station today settled down to a period of watchful waiting for the Graf Zeppelin.

If the wind is favorable and not too strong the big Zeppelin will be run into the hangar with the Los Angeles, and the two Navy blimps J-3 and J-4. If the wind is unfavorable, she will be moored to the mast at the far side of the field.

One hundred and eighty additional men from the Brooklyn Navy Yard have been ordered here to assist the 270 men of the regular landing crew. The extra men are needed because of size of the Zeppelin which is 100 feet longer than the Navy dirigible Los Angeles.

The detail of 55 Marines stationed here has been augmented by 12 state troopers to handle the crowds which are expected.

Children's Bad Breath
is usually caused by food not digested properly. In the old days mothers mixed together fruits, herbs and barks to give the children at night as a regulator. This same old formula is now offered as Boal's fruit-laxative rolls. A Boal's roll is just as tasty and delicious as a big, juicy fig and children ask for more. Sold by drug stores everywhere.—Adv.

Apple Crop Too Big: Growers in Appeals

Chicago, Oct. 12.—(AP)—With 100,000,000 bushels of apples about to be marketed for use as fresh fruit, enthusiasts are urging everybody to use two apples a day. Keeping the doctor away by eating only one apple per 24 hours is proving inadequate to sustain the farm price of apples.

Reports today from the government bureau of Agricultural Economics say that in West Virginia for example the average price to farmers is 80c a bushel, compared with $1.60 last year. Record-breaking crops of peaches, pears and grapes is the chief reason given why apples are now such a bargain.

NO DOUBT WHERE FARM WOMEN STAND.

Regardless of differences of opinion as to the relative parts played by husband and wife under urban conditions, there can be no doubt as to their relationship in agricultural households. The farmer's wife is a help-meet in every sense of the word. As often as not, it is her keen judgment and sound sense that have final influence in determining any matter under discussion.

When husband and wife are convinced from the start, the victory is assured. The strength of the Hoover-Curtis ticket in Minnesota, according to Ludwig I. Roe, chairman of the Minnesota state committee, is due primarily to the fact that Mr. Hoover's proposals for farm relief appeal strongly to both the men and women of the Minnesota farms.

They believe the Republican program comes nearer meeting the actual and future needs of the farmer than that advanced by the Democrats, and they are convinced the record of Mr. Hoover for high honor and sincerity, extraordinary capacity in performance of difficult undertakings, and his vast knowledge of the whole subject of agriculture, marks him inevitably as the right person to carry out that program.

THE MEN WHO DIE IN SUBS.

England recently gave military burial to the bodies taken from the hull of a British submarine which was sunk, in 1919, in an engagement with a Bolshevik warship in the Baltic sea. The Russians recently brought the submarine to the surface.

One wonders how the relatives of these dead British sailors feel. What did these men die for? England was not officially at war with Russia. The World War itself was over. Their deaths accomplished nothing. The soviet is as secure today as it would have been if that submarine had stayed at home.

The answer, of course, is that some British officials got excited and blundered. It was all a mistake. That may be cold comfort for the relatives of the dead soldiers—but it is about all that can be said.

ROBBERS ON BICYCLES.

This modern age may have its faults, but it has at least accustomed us to new and outlandish varieties of crime.

We have robbers who speed about in autos, gangsters who fly in airplanes and drop bombs, thugs who use machine guns, and second-story men who are familiar with the mysteries of chemical warfare. All of the latest inventions have been turned to account by the underworld.

It is refreshing, therefore, to read of the exploit of a certain colored holdup man in New York the other day. This gentleman disdained all modern conveniences; he went about his business on, of all things, a bicycle. And he got away with it!

He rode up to a cigar store, dismounted, went in and took $92 from the clerk, leisurely strolled out, got on his wheel and pedaled away. And though four taxicabs pursued him he gave them all the slip.

Banditry is a fearsome thing; but if there have to be bandits, and some of them have to escape, we hope this mid-Victorian cyclist-robber can be one of the lucky ones.

The National Safety Council reports that housework is one of the most hazardous of feminine occupations. Quite a few of the ladies seem very timid these days.

Garters for men are said to be selling as high as $22.50 in New York City. Sounds like a holdup.

Bagpipes really were invented by the Romans, a historian declares. The Scotch aren't such bad people after all.

Americans have spent $50,000,000 on antiques in England since the war ended. It's hard to get properly aged stuff over here.

A British doctor says the weak-minded should not be allowed to marry. His ideal must be race suicide.

We know one woman who won't vote for president. One neighbor told her Al Smith was a drunkard and the woman across the opposite fence has shown her that Hoover was a high-grade horse thief.

A Chicago woman has been granted three divorces from the same man. Do you suppose the two have really had a falling out?

THE TINYMITES

STORY by HAL COCHRAN—PICTURES by KNICK

(READ THE STORY, THEN COLOR THE PICTURE)

The sparrow ate from Clowny's band, and said, "You surely understand the way to be real kind. I sure appreciate this food. Of course it gives me strength to eat, when flying, or upon my feet. But I don't want to eat too much, for you might think that rude."

"Ha, ha!" laughed Coppy. "Don't you fret. Just rest assured that you will get as much as you can eat, 'cause you're entitled to your share. Why, I should think without a doubt, that flying 'round would tire you out, and what you eat will give you strength to stay up in the air."

So Clowny handed out more feed—much more than any bird should need, and Mister Sparrow nibbled till he seemed to grow real fat. Then, after while, he said, "Ah, me! I'm just as full as I can be. Don't feed me any more, 'cause I can eat no more of that."

The Tinies settled down to rest, and watched the sun sink in the west. "Twill soon be dark," said Carpy. "Then, how are we going to see?" The little sparrow snapped reply, "I'm very sorry, lads, but I must fly right down and land, 'cause I'm as sleepy as can be."

"I sympathize. I'm sleepy too," said Scouty. "I know what ails you. You've eaten too much food. That has a laziness effect." The sparrow started swooping 'round, and shortly headed for the ground. It seemed, for just a moment, that the plane would sure be wrecked.

But, as the bird began to nod, they landed safely on the sod. The sparrow went to sleep, and Scouty said, "There's naught to fear. I guess that everything's all right. Just look. There's not a soul in sight. I guess I'll shout real loud to see if anybody's near."

(The Tinies meet a funny little man in the next story.)

As Others See It

FARM SENATOR FOR HOOVER

Oakland (Cal.) Tribune

Senator Gerald P. Nye of North Dakota is interested primarily in the farm program of the next President.

Putting farm relief first, he refused to commit himself as to party affiliation or choice of candidates until he had studied the platforms and heard from the nominees. His period of waiting is over. The senator of the farming state has heard Herbert Hoover's acceptance speech and that of Governor Smith. He has studied the two men and their programs, in the light of the problem he regards the most serious.

And he has announced, as has

Frank Lowden, of Illinois, that he will vote for Hoover.

PARTY LOYALTY

Newark (N. J.) Courier

An old-line Democratic newspaper, the Chattanooga News, which has announced that it will support Hoover and Curtis, says:

"Party loyalty is a dual matter. The candidate must be loyal to party principles in order to expect the loyalty of party members. * * * Governor Smith has conspicuously transgressed the party platform and Democrats as such can be under no further obligation to him."

SINCERITY AND SERVICE

Rockford (Ill.) Register-Gazette

Of all the qualities of Herbert Hoover the one towering above others is his honesty in thought, word and deed. He is absolutely on the level and his sincerity and simplicity attract people and cement the attachment. Herbert Hoover does not employ political tactics to trick people to get votes.

"MIKE" UPSETS POLITICS

The Washington (D. C.) News
Had Smith and Hoover opposed each other eight years ago, the advantage in the speaking campaign would all have been with Smith. Today the advantage is the other way around. The reason is the radio. Hoover's radio voice is vastly better than Smith's. * * * And millions listen to the radio now to thousands who heard the presidential campaign of eight years ago.

Governor Smith fired a boomerang when he taunted the administration with having collected $24,000,000 more in total taxes than during the first year that Coolidge was President. The term "total taxes" is vague, but if he refers to income tax, the answer is that reduction of rates and increase of exemption swelled the yield of revenue by adding vastly to the amount of capital and labor producing incomes.—Portland (Ore.) Oregonian.

Mr. Smith's knowledge of politics is undeniable but his diploma is granted by a college in doubtful standing. Mr. Hoover's ignorance in politics is far more reassuring.—Wall Street Journal.

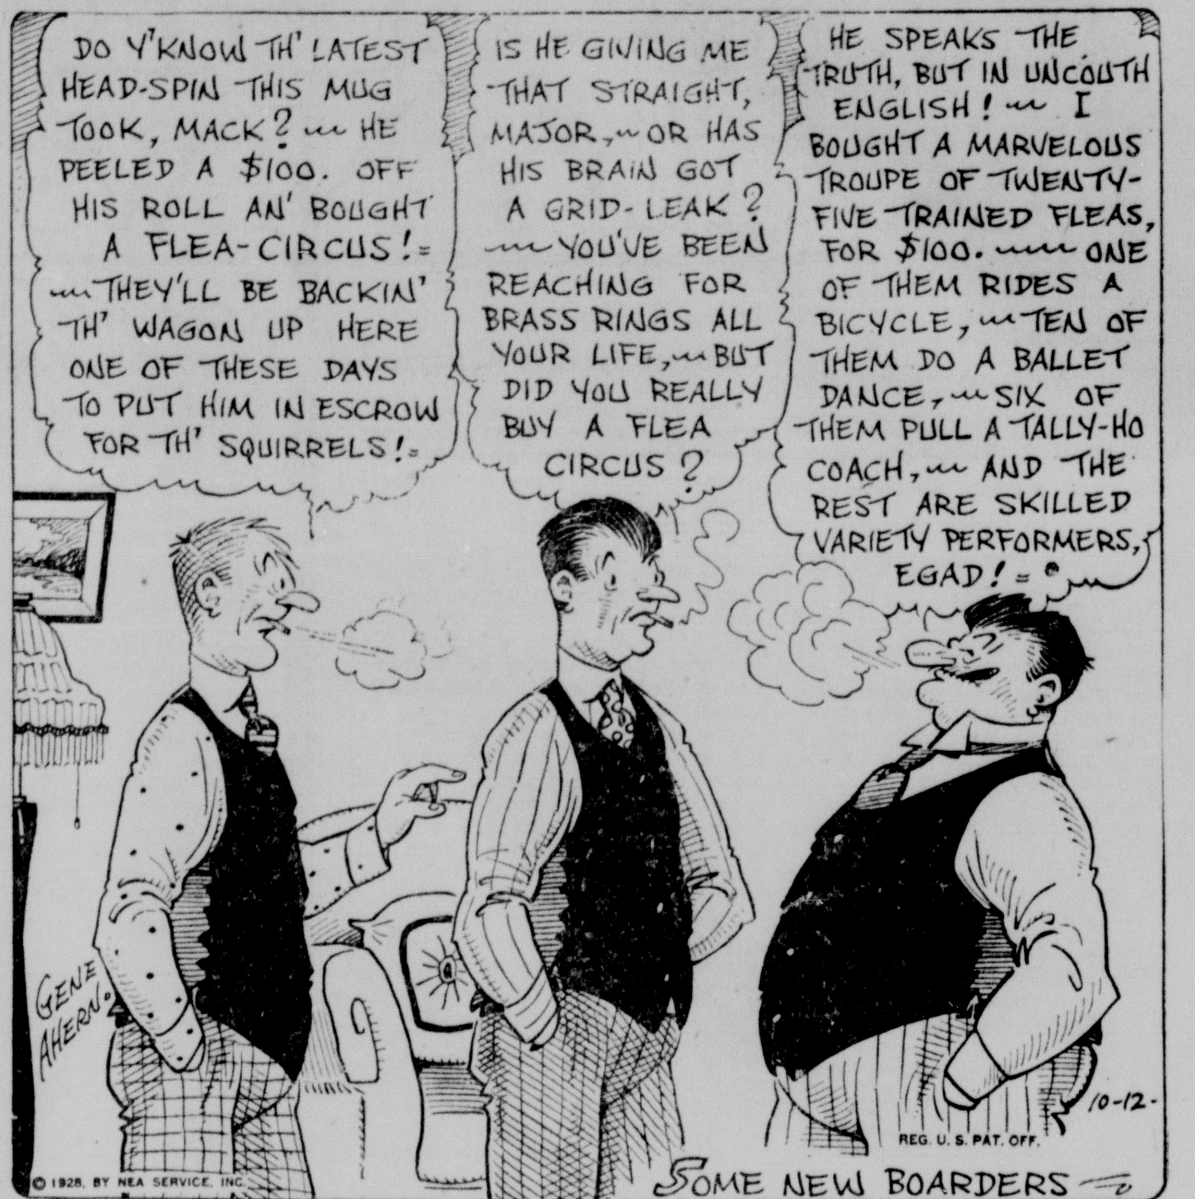

HOOVER ALPHABET
BY MABEL F. MARTINTHRIFT:
Hoover Utilizes What Others Throw Away

At Broken Hill, in Australia, the mines which had yielded lead and silver for thirty years seemed about exhausted. The community of several thousand people was dying of commercial starvation. Refuse in dumps like mountains lay about the worn-out mines. Hoover discovered a method of extracting the zinc which the refuse contained. By using Hoover's methods, the miners at Broken Hill are still busy and prosperous.

When Americans entered the World War, Hoover determined that we should not suffer from lack of a balanced diet, as every other belligerent country had suffered. He taught the housewives to substitute equally wholesome foods for the staples which military necessity forced our country to send to her soldiers and allies

140 YEARS OF THE PRESIDENTIAL PARADE!

EDITOR'S NOTE: In this chapter of "The Presidential Parade," Rodney Dutcher tells of the events leading to Grant's much discussed administration. It is the seventeenth of the series reviewing presidential politics since Washington's days.

BY RODNEY DUTCHER
NEA Service Writer

(Copyright, 1923, NEA Service, Inc.)
Washington, Oct. 12.—The political wrangling and the battle over President Andrew Johnson after the Civil War left the people so disgusted with party politicians that in 1868 the Republicans nominated a Democrat and the Democrats nearly named a Republican.

General Ulysses S. Grant was the great popular hero. But he had never voted the Republican ticket, not even for Lincoln in 1864, and had sided with the pro-slavery Democratic ticket in 1860.
Republican leaders, anxious lest the next president give the vanquished south enough political liberty to regain control, wanted a stronger party man. But popular clamor was unmistakable and they proceeded to take Grant away from his old party. Grant turned down the Democrats and went Republican because the latter party had sympathized with him when Johnson had tried first to get him out of the country and then to supersede him.

Ohio's Entries

President Johnson, elected on a Republican ticket with Lincoln, also sought the Democratic honors. Johnson had tried to carry out the Lincoln reconstruction policies, but wasn't big enough for the job in the face of a radical Congress which feared that the solid south would renew its pre-war domination of national politics if not held down.

The Republicans convened first at Chicago and nominated Grant unanimously. A large portrait of Grant was unveiled, inscribed "MATCH HIM!" and a white dove let loose to flap about the hall. A trio of chaplains sang a hastily-composed doggerel song, "We'll Fight It Out on the Old Union Line," which became a campaign slogan with Grant's famous "Let Us Have Peace." Speaker Schuyler Colfax of Indiana was named for vice president and the platform coupled denunciation of Johnson's "treachery and corruption" with a demand for equal rights for negro voters.

The Democrats met at Tammany Hall on July 4, wondering how to "match him." Their great old leader, Stephen A. Douglas, might have led them to victory had he not died during the war, famous for his dictum, "There can be no neutrals in this war—only patriots and traitors."

"Gentleman George" Pendleton of Ohio led the field, with the field determined to beat him. Three hundred Pendleton rosters marched into the hall bearing greenback emblems, but they were up against the same Tammany that was to pack Madison Square Garden against McAdoo in 1924. Southern delegates were for Johnson and the soldiers for General Winfield S. Hancock. Johnson had a distinct chance, but the strongest under-current was for Chase.

Seymour Starbuck
The controlling politicians rescheduled the two-thirds rule and sank Pendleton, who withdrew on the 19th ballot, leaving Hancock and Hendricks of Indiana high men. New York and Pennsylvania bosses then played these two against each other, allowing neither to win. Governor Horatio Seymour of New York left the chair to work on the floor for Chase. But "Slippery Sam" Tilden, who had yet to break up Tammany's vile Tweed ring, had been busy crucifying Chase and gets sole credit for blocking him.

Seymour suddenly received votes on the 22nd ballot and promptly refused to be a candidate. But a Seymour stampede followed as if by rehearsal. General Frank P. Blair of Missouri landed in second place. Johnson had received 65 votes on the first ballot, but never gained.

The platform charged the G. O. P. with submitting the south to military despotism and negro supremacy, abolishing the bill of rights, with frauds, monopolies and "corruption and extravagance exceeding anything known in history."

Then it demanded payment of war bonds in "lawful currency," when possible. This meant paying a large section of war bonds in greenbacks, then worth something like 50 cents to the dollar because of the enormous war-time issues of paper money.

The plank enraged the eastern bondholding class and the Republicans called it repudiation; but it appealed to the masses and the party raised the slogan. "The same currency for bondholder and plowholder." This was the beginning of the use of money as a political issue which was to culminate in 1896 and solidified the support of northern business and industry which the Republican party had captured with its high tariff and anti-slavery planks in 1860.

Carpet-Baggers

Grant's election was never in doubt, although the Democrats polled 47½ per cent of the vote. The Republican carpet baggers (so called because they were hungry politicians said to have traveled south to gain political control with negro support after packing all their belongings in a satchel), held the south by the aid of the military. Only the rising Ku Klux Klan made Georgia and Louisiana Democratic. With the solid south, Seymour would have won for the Democrats, and this fact spurred the Republican Congress to new measures to insure votes for the ex-slaves.

Frauds were charged in Louisiana and a congressional investigating committee later charged that "Over 2000 persons were killed, wounded and injured there within a few weeks of the election; half the state was overrun by violence, midnight raids, secret murders and open riots, which kept the people in constant terror until the Republicans surrendered all claims." In Caddo parish "the Ku Klux killed and wounded over 200 Republicans, hunting and chasing them two days and nights through fields and swamps," after which "the masses of negroes were captured by the Ku Klux, marked with badges of red flannel, and led to the polls and compelled to vote the Democratic ticket."

Ballot-Stuffing

But Grant carried the Carolinas, Florida, Tennessee, Alabama and Florida, with Texas and Mississippi not voting, for a national majority of 300,000.

He lost New York by exactly 10,000 votes, the returns said, and this queer result was laid to the ballot stuffing of the Tweed Ring, done to protect large bets made by Tammany's faithful. The popular and electoral vote:

Grant 3,013,000 214
Seymour 2,703,000 80

Says Religion Has No Place in Polling

Chicago, Oct. 11.—(AP)—Governor Albert C. Ritchie of Maryland has blazed democracy's campaign trail in Illinois with a censure of political parsons and an attack against religious prejudice in political affairs.

The Maryland executive, advocating the election of Governor Alfred E. Smith to the presidency, addressed a Democratic rally last night as the first of three major speakers to bring the national message of democracy to Chicago.

Mayor James J. Walker of New York and the Democratic nominee himself will deliver the other campaign speeches here.

Governor Ritchie, a Protestant, declared that politics from the pulpit invariably injures the church. He attempted to tear away beliefs that the Catholic church would control the country if Smith were elected to the White House.

"You may vote against Governor Smith because you do not agree with his political views," he said, "or because you do not like his brown derby, but to vote against him because he is a Catholic is religious intolerance. It is a crime against political freedom and a crime against yourself."

The American people including the Catholics would drive Smith from office should he attempt to take advice or orders from the Pope, Governor Ritchie asserted.

CLOSE SUBSCRIPTION

Washington, Oct. 11.—(AP)—Subscriptions amounting to $838,700,000 have been received to the latest treasury offer of short term notes, which amounted to $300,000,000 of 4% per cent securities dated Oct. 15 and maturing in eleven months time. Secretary Mellon today said that the Treasury would accept subscriptions to a total of approximately $308,000,000, and that the subscription list would be closed at once.

ACCOMPLISHMENT
OF REPUBLICANS
MELLON THEME

Secretary of Treasury Delivered Address
for Sec. Hoover

Washington, Oct. 12—(AP)—Hailing Herbert Hoover as a far-seeing and resourceful executive, Andrew W.
Mellon told a radio audience last night that the Republican presidential candidate is well qualified to carry on the "constructive" policies of the present administration.

Delivering into the microphone at station WRC here the second political speech of his life, the veteran Treasury Secretary said that in the final analysis there is only one issue
in this campaign—"whether the leadership offered by the Republican or by the Democratic party is better qualified to assume the burden of carrying on the government and of solving the problems which will arise
in the next four years."

"The Democratic candidate has told you what he professes to do," Mellon said. "The Republican candidate, Mr. Hoover, is in the fortunate position of being able to tell you not only what he will do but what he and the administration, of which he has been an important part, have already done. He offers you an unparalleled record of constructive achievement;
and, on that record, he and the Republican party ask for your confidence and support."

"What has that record been? In the first place, it has been a complete fulfillment of the promise
which the Republican party made,
that the government should be administered economically and in accord with accepted business principles, and that the affairs of the country should be put on a sound basis, so that confidence might return and the march of progress might be resumed after the long interval of the war."

Cites Finances

"That the administration has made good its promise is best attested by the fact that today the finances both of the government and of the country are in a sound condition. Under the present administration taxes have been materially lowered on four occasions, expenditures have been cut,
the public debt has been reduced so that it is no longer a heavy burden on the tax payers, the nation has been given the benefit of a protective tariff;

and during the entire period the country has moved steadily forward, getting further and further away from the unsettled conditions which prevailed in 1921, when the present Republican administration took office.

"At that time the whole economic structure seemed in need of readjustment. Now, after nearly eight years, it is possible to judge of what has been accomplished. Not only has the nation passed through this difficult period of post-war readjustment, but during the last three or four years it has enjoyed one of the most prosperous periods in its history."

Prosperity General

"In no other nation and at no other time in the history of the world have so many people enjoyed such a high degree of prosperity or maintained a standard of living comparable to that which prevails throughout this country today. Our highways are crowded with automobiles and statistics show that the number of passenger car registrations have more than doubled in the last seven years, saving deposits have nearly doubled, and bank deposits have increased from 39 billion dollars in 1921
to 56 billion dollars in 1922."

Mellon said that taxes had been removed from two and one half million citizens with total reductions of eighteen hundred million dollars, or five million dollars a day; that great reduction had been made in government expenditures; that the public debt had been reduced over six billions of dollars and that the eleven billion dollars of foreign debts had been settled.

"Another important policy of the administration has been to provide adequate credit for agriculture," he added. "Through the war finance corporation, the intermediate credit banks, and the banks of the farm loan system, ample credit has been provided on easy terms and at low interest rates. This is one of the vital elements in the farm problem and places at the farmer's disposal adequate banking facilities. It does not,
of course, solve those other problems
of organization, distribution, and disposal of surplus, which are responsible for so many of the farmer's present troubles. These problems must and will be solved in other ways.

There are three other things which should be mentioned in connection with the government's financial policies. The war claims against Germany and Austria have been settled in a way satisfactory to those nations as well as to ourselves; the loans
made to our railroads during the war have been nearly all repaid; and the charters of the federal reserve banks have been renewed, thus insuring continuation of the banking system
under which he were able to finance

the war and to pass safely through the reconstruction period.

"I would like to make it clear that in the renewal of the charters of the Federal Reserve banks, the administration had the cooperation and support of Democrats as well as Republicans in congress."

Constructive Record

"Such is the record of the administration as regards its financial policies. It is a constructive record and one that speaks for itself. And yet Governor Smith and other Democratic speakers not only seek to withhold credit from the Coolidge administration for its undisputed achievements, such as reducing debts, taxes,
and expenditures, but apparently do not approve that record. They are careful not to specify in what respect
they would change it, but content themselves with the charge that nearly eight years of good government and mounting prosperity do not,
in their opinion, constitute a record of 'constructive' achievement."

"I submit that it is a constructive record in the best sense of the word."

Success Meant Fight

"Success was not achieved in this instance without a fight. Take the question of reduction of taxes and reform of the tax system, or reduction of the public debt, or the settlement of the foreign debts. All of these measures helped in building up that feeling of confidence which has been no small factor in promoting prosperity during the last three or four years. Looking at them in retrospect, each one of these steps seem not only ample and logical but inevitable; and yet the administration was opposed at each step of the way in trying to carry out these policies."

"The Republican party has given a notable instance of platform promises which has been carried out. Under the leadership of President Coolidge, it has proved itself a party of constructive ability. In Mr. Hoover, it offers to the country an able and experienced leader, who will carry on the work of the present administration."

"After a long and successful business career, he has held many public and official positions of the greatest responsibility. He has proved himself a great organizer, a far seeing and resourceful executive, and has discharged every duty in a way to merit the highest praise and admiration."

"Based on nearly eight years of close association with him, I am convinced that he will give the nation a sound and successful administration of the government and that he is supremely well qualified to deal with those great economic problems that influence so directly to such a very large extent the prosperity of the country and the comfort, welfare, and happiness of the people."

Good Thoughts for Good People

The desire to establish in our own thinking and living the divine standard of perfection should rule our every thought and action since the important and only necessity for us all, whatever our seeming circumstances, is to maintain the right spiritual standard in order that our thoughts and acts may always be kept true to spiritual ideals.

Christian Science Sentinel.
The ideal is the only absolute real; and it must become the real in the individual life as well, however impossible they may count it who never tried it.

George MacDonald.
The true ideal is not opposed to the real, nor is it any artificial heightening thereof, but lies in it; and blessed are the eyes that find it.

Lowell.
The end of life is to be like unto God; and the soul following God will be like unto Him.

Socrates.
For God, who commanded the light to shine out of darkness, hath shined in our hearts, to give the light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Jesus Christ. While we look not at the things which are seen; for the things which are seen are temporal; but the things which are not seen are eternal.

MID-WEEK SERVICES
7:30 Wednesday. Prayer, praise and Bible study for every member of the family. We invite you to fellowship with us. We emphasize JUSTIFICATION BY FAITH. Salvation by works is an offense to the Cross of Christ. A man is only justified by faith in the blood and righteousness of the Lord Jesus Christ. He that believeth in Him hath everlasting life. It is a crime against the soul of every sinful man to preach or teach that he can be saved by works. Whoever will trust in the Saviour will be justified in the sight of God. Christ rose again for our justification.
A welcome and a message for you at the House of God.

CHICAGO SPORTS METROPOLIS OF U. S. TOMORROW

Three of Biggest Grid Games of Day to be Played in City

By PAUL R. MICKELSON
Associated Press Sports Writer
Chicago, Oct. 12.—(AP)—Two haughty elevens, Notre Dame and the Navy, already welled and scarred by the lash of defeat, will lock in combat on Soldier Field tomorrow
before probably the largest multitude ever to witness a football game in America.

One hundred and twenty thousand persons, eclipsing by thousands the previous record-breaking throng that jammed into the huge stadium on the shore of Lake Michigan for the Notre-Dame vs University of Southern California spectacle a year ago, are expected to watch the clash.
So great has been the demand for tickets that extra bleachers have been erected and every inch of available space utilized to accommodate,
if necessary, 130,000.

Triple Grid Program
With the colorful spectacle of the headline attraction of Chicago's triple gridiron program for the day,
a program calculated to draw a total of more than 200,000 spectators, this city Saturday will be the sporting metropolis of America. Ten miles south, on Stagg Field, more than 40,000 are expected to see the Big Ten struggle between Iowa and Chicago; thirteen miles north another throng of 50,000 probably will jam into Dyche Stadium to witness the OhioState-Northwestern duel.

Chicago was on edge and intensely excited by the proximity of the gala attractions today. Hotels reported reservations were being gobbled up.

Have Speedy Backs
The Notre Dame-Navy game itself
promises to be a wide open match, with both elevens striving to regain what gridiron prestige they lost in earlier defeats, the Navy to Davis-Elkins and Boston College and Notre Dame to Wisconsin. Both have speedy and elusive backs while their forward walls are not as strong. But in experience, "Navy Bill" Ingram's midshipmen have an edge, as all his men except Halfback Castree have had more than a year's experience.
Both elevens are well fortified with reserve power, and both have good kickers, Notre Dame relying on Johnny Niemiec and the Navy on Harold Bauer.

The Navy squad, 36 strong, was due to arrive in Chicago late today, while Notre Dame will wait until tomorrow morning. A large delegation of midshipmen will be on hand for the big game tomorrow. Seats along the 50-yard line have been reserved by many notables of the Navy, including Curtis D. Wilbur, Secretary of the Navy; Admiral S. S. Robinson, Superintendent of the Naval Academy, and Admiral T. T. Craven, Commandant of the Ninth, Tenth and Eleventh Naval Districts.

Vice President Charles G. Dawes
and Mayor "Jimmie" Walker of New York will be among other national figures to witness the struggle.
Bands from the rival schools and military units from the Chicago metropolitan area provide additional color to the great spectacle.

CONFERENCE OPENING
Chicago, Oct. 12.—(AP)—Inaugural invasions of the Big Ten's 1928 gridiron campaign were on today as eight teams prepared for tomorrow's opening struggles in the race for conference honors.

For the first time in 31 years, Purdue invaded Minnesota with hopes of providing another upset by stopping the charges of the powerful gophers; Indiana was at Michigan.
Ohio State invaded Northwestern and Iowa's heavy squad was at Chicago for the first clash between the two schools since 1920.

Each team was accompanied by thousands of rooters.

Outclassed in its line, Northwestern depended on its fleet backs to repulse Ohio State's invasion.

Mayes McLain, Iowa's husky fullback, was causing considerable interest and some consternation for Chicago as it prepared for the tussle. The Maroon line has been weak and McLain, who led the Nation's stars in individual scoring in 1926

when he played with Haskell, is expected to flat it. Coach Stagg indicated his team would flash a passing attack by drilling his men in the department thoroughly again
last night.

Byod by the prospect of defeating Michigan for the first time, Indiana's rugged team was confident.
Coach Tad Wieman of the Wolverines promised a different line-up than the one that bowed to Ohio Wesleyan Saturday.

Announcement that Ed Westphal, sophomore fullback candidate, was scholastically eligible, comforted Minnesota although he may not get into the Purdue game. Several Minnesota players are on the crippled list, including Bob Turner, regular end, who was severely bumped and had to be helped off the field yesterday.

Safe—

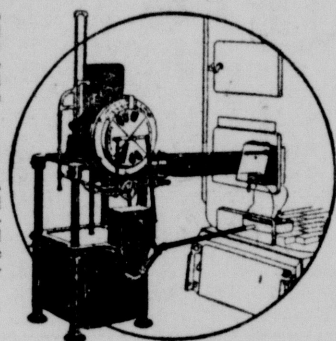

The McILVAINE is 100% safe. There is no

Quiet—

A noiseless motor-driven unit supplies a positive feed of air and oil, proportioned and

FIRST CHURCH OF CHRIST SCIENTIST

319 Second Street

ST. PAUL'S EVANGELICAL LUTHERAN CHURCH

Lloyd Warren Walter, Pastor. Rev. C. B. Coughman pastor in India. 9:30 A. M. Bible School. We are now moving on from the high mark of last Sunday. We want to grow bigger and better with special emphasis on the latter word, better. It is a real pleasure to note the growth in the Bible Schools of Dixon and we desire to share with others the pleasure of growth and efficiency.

10:45 A. M. Divine Worship. Sermon topic—Shepherdless Sheep. It is hoped that all who communed last Sunday will return again to this service, unless providentially hindered. There is reason for alarm when we do not desire the Courts of His House. Men always and everywhere should cultivate the desire to worship Him.

6:30 P. M. Luther League. The plans have been laid for this to be a Rally Service. Members of the League have been asked to invite their friends. Of course every member is planning to attend. Special preparation for a good meeting is being made. The topic, "All for Christ," lends itself very beautifully to a rally meeting as well as to real consecration of life. Special musical numbers will add interest and power.

7:30 P. M. Vesper Service. A larger and better service is the plan for our evening worship. The young people's choir sings. Sermon topic: Sitting Under a Juniper Tree.

7:30 P. M. Wednesday, midweek service.

7:30 P. M. Friday, the Brotherhood meets.

You are cordially invited to all our services.

CHURCH OF THE BRETHREN

Cor. 3rd and Madison

B. C. Whitmore, Pastor

The revival in progress the past week by Rev. and Mrs. Stutsman of Chicago has developed a marked awakening and an excellent spirit of consecration. The sermons have been scholarly, heart-searching and masterfully presented. The Truth of God has been made to shine as a beacon light, and souls are pointed to the footsteps of Jesus.

The story for the children last evening was very interesting. It was about two T's. The first stood for something that was good to keep but bma dto loose—temper. The second stood for something that was as plentiful with any of us as with Henry Ford, Rockefeller or any of the great people of the world—time. It should not be killed, squandered nor lost, but because it is so precious it should be used wisely. The sermon, "The Christian Home," was timely stressing the dangers of the modern home, and setting forth the ideals which make for a strong nation. No nation can rise higher than its family life. "Righteousness exalteth a nation but sin is a reproach to any people."

The story for the children will again be "Two T's." These will also be found interesting. The sermon, "The Supreme Question" will be good to hear and good to consider. The adult chorus and mixed quartet will sing. Come, bring your friends.

There will be no services Saturday evening. The Revival will continue over Sunday and all next week. Everybody welcome to each and all services.

Former Grid Hero Sentenced to Prison

Los Angeles, Oct. 12—(AP)—In strange contrast to the thunderous applause which followed Johnny Hawkins four years ago when he was captain and star quarterback of the University of Southern California football team, the former grid hero heard a sentence of from five to seventy-five years imprisonment for burglary pronounced against him in court here yesterday.

The one-time hero of thousands of students of the University campus and the idol of Southern California grid fans stood with head bowed when his long personal appeal for probation was denied and sentence to San Quentin was pronounced.

Hawkins pleaded guilty to five charges of burglary after being caught robbing a house here last January. Discovery later of $35,000 worth of plunder in his home resulted in thirty charges of burglary being placed against him.

Young Surgeon in West Removed Own Appendix; is Alive

Los Angeles, Oct. 12—(AP)—Dr. Robert Meals, young Hollywood surgeon, who three days ago removed his own appendix, today said he felt well enough to get up and walk, and "I would do so now instead of waiting the necessary ten days if I thought it would be safe."

Neither economy, necessity, nor desire for publicity prompted his self-operation the doctor said. Rather the operation was an experiment to verify his previous conclusion that the "shock" which most patients suffer from operations was due largely to anesthesia rather than the operation itself.

This theory, he said, had been corroborated. Such an operation has been performed only two or three times before in surgical history, doctors said.

Helped by Friend So reluctant were hospitals to be the scene of the experiment that Dr.

Meals said he was refused permission to carry it out at two of the larger institutions here and consent to enter a third was given only after a promise that there would be no publicity given the hospital.

Dr. Meals was assisted by a friend, Dr. J. Norton Nichols, who helped locate the appendix, which was in an unusual position, and to loosen it from adhesions to the back of the abdominal wall.

Dr. Meals took his place on the operating table with only nurses, internes and Dr. Nichols present. His back and head was propped up and a surgeon's gown was slipped over his shoulders. He wore the usual rubber gloves and with his own hands proceeded as though he was operating on a patient under anesthesia.

J. Forest Suter Heads Toastmasters

At the weekly dinner meeting last night, J. Forest Suter was elected president of the Toastmasters Club for the next term, succeeding M. C. Selander, who has headed the organization for the past term. A most interesting program was presented by Don McMahers. Dr. George McMahers gave a talk on "Privilege Abuses." Orville Smith entertained with the reading of some poetry and H. M. Hey presented a most instructive parliamentary drill. The Toastmasters pledged their support to the Y. M. C. A. in the coming campaign and a large number of individual members signified their willingness to take part.

Friendly Indians

The Shawnee Tribe of Friendly Indians met at the Y on Wednesday evening. Chief Warren Stout presiding. The adult advisor, known as a big chief, is Leon Garrison and he, with Mr. Koller, secretary of the Y, had charge of the program which was both entertaining and instructive. After the meeting, the tribe adjourned to the parlors of the Baptist church to view an exhibit of curios from all parts of the world, gathered by missionaries in Africa, soldiers in the war of the past two hundred years and many other sources.

Legionnaires Head into Mexico Today

San Antonio, Tex., Oct. 12—(AP)—Veterans of the World War moved on Mexico today in a pleasure-seeking peace-time invasion of the southern republic. Close of the tenth annual American Legion convention here found hundreds of the delegates en route to the border for a week-end of entertainment.

Excursions into Mexico and bull fights at several below-the-border points were scheduled activities. One contingent of the veterans will push on to Mexico City for a visit in the capital city.

Many special and regular trains carried the remainder of the thousands of visitors to their homes today.

Paul V. McNutt, 37-year-old dean of the School of Law at the University of Indiana, will direct the destinies of the Legion during 1929, succeeding Edward E. Spafford of New York, retiring Commander. The youthful dean, who rose to the rank of Lieutenant-Colonel in the Field Artillery during the World War, was elected on the third ballot yesterday.

after two of his chief opponents had withdrawn in his favor.

The convention was one of the most peaceful the organization has ever known and very few controversial issues were uncovered.

Tried to Drive G. O. P. Car in Smith Parade

Raleigh, N. C., Oct. 12—(AP)—David Peebles and Harry Seawell attempted to drive a car decorated with Hoover banners in the Smith parade here yesterday.

A mob of spectators broke ranks at the curb, halted the car, smashed its headlights, wrenched off a door, ripped up the upholstery, slashed a tire and plastered the body with Smith stickers. Seawell and Peebles fled.
